Home Page

The Home Page displays your Engagement Check-In and Recommended Actions.

ENGAGEMENT CHECK-IN

The Unreviewed Testimonials tile only appears for users in an SEC-regulated hierarchy. For information about SEC-compliant testimonials, see SEC's Modern Marketing Rule Testimonial Support Now Available. Hover over the SEC tooltip for more information. If a user clicks Unreviewed Testimonials, they are taken to a page that lists all of their unreviewed testimonials, ordered by soonest to expire.

User Workflow for Testimonials:

When someone leaves a testimonial, the user receives an email asking them to identify the individual who wrote it, and gives the timeframe for them to take action. Clicking Confirm, published the testimonial.

If they select Provide additional info, they are taken to this screen to provide the information.

If the user doesn't provide the information on time, they are informed that the testimonial is disavowed.

RECOMMENDED ACTIONS

This Actions List consists of actions for setting up your account as well as recommended actions to take based on community engagement. This might include following up on a post comment, subscribing to a campaign, or making a necessary profile update to align with compliance policy.

Onboarding action cards are triggered for new workspaces. The “Connect Your Social Media Accounts” action card will encourage you to connect your Facebook, LinkedIn, Twitter or Instagram account to Hearsay and guides you via an onboarding wizard in order to complete the process.

Publishing Generative AI Content

Depending on your organization's settings, users can create a generative AI post by entering key words and phrases (English only) or by writing a prompt (in any language).

This will open the publisher window.

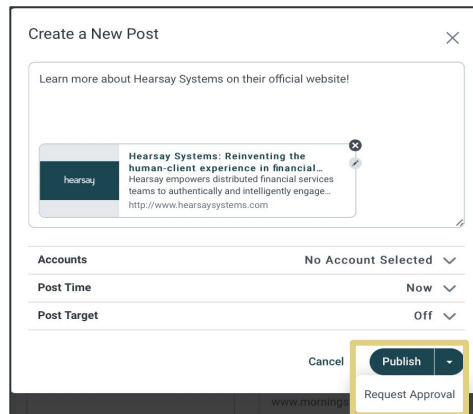

1. Include a message or copy and paste a link, which will pull in the thumbnail, header and subheader. Similar to pre-approved content, this is all editable based on your organization's setup. For example, the link can be removed from the publisher box and replaced with custom text and a call-to-action.
2. If desired, include a photo. Twitter allows up to four photos to be added. Instagram only allows one photo, while Facebook and LinkedIn allows multiple photos.
3. GIF (Graphics Interchange Format) - small animations and video footage can be added with your custom post along with a description field for additional text. Note: Hearsay Social currently only supports GIF publishing to Facebook, LinkedIn and Twitter.
4. If enabled, upload a video file to publish to either LinkedIn, Facebook, Twitter, or Instagram.

COMPLIANCE GUARDRAILS

Per your organization's compliance policy, your custom content may either require you to Request Approval or the post will be scanned against your organization's Lexicon list of flagged words. These processes are put in place to ensure you are compliant with your social publishing.

Request Approval

Once you've created custom content, you may need to request approval to route your post to your compliance team for review. Only if your team approves the content will it then schedule or publish as created. After creating your custom content post, click on the Publish dropdown and select Request Approval.

Lexicon Scanning

If your post includes a flagged word from your organization's Lexicon list, Hearsay will prevent the user from publishing/scheduling the post by requiring the user to either remove the word, or click Request Approval to submit the post for review to the compliance team.

If there are no flagged words, your custom content will schedule or publish posts instantly.

Campaigns

A campaign consists of multiple pieces of content that are grouped together and released separately at timed intervals as a fluid set of posts. They are often centered on a single theme and are released on a staggered basis. To access Campaigns, click on Campaigns under Social Media.

Type of Campaigns

- Dynamic: Content within these campaigns have pre-determined dates at which the content will publish, set by your organization’s social media and compliance team. Admins can also add additional content to these campaigns. As long as you are subscribed to a dynamic campaign, all existing content, and content added to the campaign after you’ve subscribed, will still be scheduled on your behalf. Dynamic campaigns usually focus on date-specific content for specific topics.
- Relative: Content within these campaigns have pre-determined dates relative to once you’ve subscribed to the campaign (ex: content is set to schedule 1, 2, and 3 days from the date the user subscribed). Relative campaigns usually focus on evergreen content that can be published throughout the year.

Viewing Campaign Content

To view content within a campaign, Campaigns under Social Media. Then click on See All Posts to the bottom right of the campaign.

This will display the day and time at which the content will publish and allows the user to read content containing links before publishing. Click on Previous Posts to view all posts previously published from this campaign.

Modification Required Content

Campaigns tagged with “Modification Required” include posts that require content modification by the user.

Insights

Social Insights help you understand your social activity within the social networks you have connected to your workspace by providing metrics for the past 30 days.

To access your Insights, select the Insights tab on the side navigation bar. The Improve your social media strategy using AI section in the Social Insights dashboard gives recommended actions for optimizing social media usage.

Clicking Get a Recommendation leverages AI to analyze the user's social media performance, compares it to their peers' performance, and provides suggestions for improvement. Users can generate up to eight recommendations to explore alternate approaches and rate the recommendations they receive.

The Insights dashboard shows performance over the past 30 days. These metrics include:

- Number of published posts
- Number of impressions
- Number of likes, comments and shares
- Number of clicks on links
- Number of connections and followers
- Top interest categories for the user, based on our AI engine's analysis of their search and publishing history
- Top interest categories for the user's audience, based on our AI engine's analysis of audience engagement with the user's posts.
- Top performing posts of the user
- Top performing posts of the user's peers

The numerical metrics are also paired with hierarchy-level benchmarks, which provide comparison figures of how the user is performing versus their peers.

Users also see personalized recommendations based on their individual, group and organization-level measures. These recommendations provide guidance on what users can do differently to improve their social media presence and performance.
